

2023 AGC Diversity & Inclusion Roundtable Report

On September 20, 2023, AGC convened industry leaders to address pivotal aspects of fostering diversity, equity, and inclusion. The following detailed report captures the discussions and outcomes of the 2023 AGC Diversity & Inclusion Roundtable event.

1. The Importance of Leadership Commitment to D&I:

Leadership commitment is crucial for driving diversity, equity, and inclusion. Key themes included strong leadership involvement in the development of strategic programs and ongoing commitment to build inclusive leadership skills.

Widespread recognition of the importance of mental well-being was a key theme. Work-life balance programs, such as flexible scheduling and remote work options, were highlighted as essential for maintaining mental health. The report also emphasizes the need for leadership to demonstrate a shared understanding that "we are all in this together" and to actively promote diversity and inclusion in the workplace.

2. Key Takeaways from the Roundtable:

The roundtable discussions led to several key takeaways, including the need for continued education and training on diversity and inclusion topics, the importance of creating a culture of belonging and respect, and the need to measure progress and hold leadership accountable for results.
